

Hispanic-Latino Heritage Month

September 15 - October 15, 2021

This week's En Conjunto Moment

Sending + Envío

People all over the world in response to God's love, leave the worship service, inspired and empowered to serve brother, sister, and siblings in the world. We intercede in prayer for all who suffer any need or grief, and we fight as hard as we can to rectify social evils and wrongs that affect people.

We "work for justice and peace." We engage with the world.

A couple were farmers on their land in Mexico. They heard the salvation story at a special Bible study. They were told to go home, and share the gospel with friends and neighbors, and to come to another study in a month.

When they came back, they were very late, as they had come on foot from far away. Somewhat ashamed, they told the following story: "We thought about all that you told us, Pastor. We returned home. The next day, the ministry of agriculture delivered 5,000 trees instead of the 50 trees we had ordered. We begged our neighbors to help us plant all those trees. They came and helped us. And as we planted, for several weeks, we shared with them the story that you told us, about God in history, loving the people of Israel, and

over to continue...

enconjunto@elca-ses.org
404-589-1977 ext 232
elca-ses.org/en-conjunto

Hispanic-Latino Heritage Month

September 15 - October 15, 2021

This week's En Conjunto Moment

Sending + Envío

People all over the world in response to God's love, leave the worship service, inspired and empowered to serve brother, sister, and siblings in the world. We intercede in prayer for all who suffer any need or grief, and we fight as hard as we can to rectify social evils and wrongs that affect people.

We "work for justice and peace." We engage with the world.

A couple were farmers on their land in Mexico. They heard the salvation story at a special Bible study. They were told to go home, and share the gospel with friends and neighbors, and to come to another study in a month.

When they came back, they were very late, as they had come on foot from far away. Somewhat ashamed, they told the following story: "We thought about all that you told us, Pastor. We returned home. The next day, the ministry of agriculture delivered 5,000 trees instead of the 50 trees we had ordered. We begged our neighbors to help us plant all those trees. They came and helped us. And as we planted, for several weeks, we shared with them the story that you told us, about God in history, loving the people of Israel, and

over to continue...

enconjunto@elca-ses.org
404-589-1977 ext 232
elca-ses.org/en-conjunto

ACCOMPANIMENT

Our model or way of being together in this work God has called us to is one of accompaniment, based on the values of:
mutuality
inclusivity
vulnerability
empowerment
sustainability

providing the Holy Scriptures. We shared with them how God sent his Son to the world to teach about God's love, and to heal. And how he died to redeem us. We told them about God raising Jesus from the dead, and how the message has been shared by many to this day. Is that what you wanted us to do, Pastor?"

As our baptismal liturgy reminds us, we are called, gathered, inspired, fed, and sent to "proclaim Christ through word and deed, care for others and the world that God made, and to work for justice and peace." ELW, p. 228

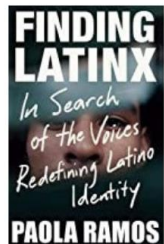

Hymn suggestion:
ELW 706
The People Walk
Un pueblo que camina

Do you think the farmers did that? Are we able to do this, together? En Conjunto strives to help you be able to be Christ's presence in the world.

If you are curious about Latinx ministry in the Southeastern Synod, please visit: elca-ses.org/en-conjunto. There you can learn more about:

- AMMPARO (Accompanying Migrant Minors with Protection, Advocacy, Representation, and Opportunity)
- Diversity and Justice
- Knowing your rights
- And much more...

Good Read:

Finding Latinx, Paola Ramos

ELCA Accompaniment Model
<https://bit.ly/3DzhZVQ>

ACCOMPANIMENT

Our model or way of being together in this work God has called us to is one of accompaniment, based on the values of:
mutuality
inclusivity
vulnerability
empowerment
sustainability

providing the Holy Scriptures. We shared with them how God sent his Son to the world to teach about God's love, and to heal. And how he died to redeem us. We told them about God raising Jesus from the dead, and how the message has been shared by many to this day. Is that what you wanted us to do, Pastor?"

As our baptismal liturgy reminds us, we are called, gathered, inspired, fed, and sent to "proclaim Christ through word and deed, care for others and the world that God made, and to work for justice and peace." ELW, p. 228

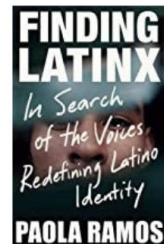

Hymn suggestion:
ELW 706
The People Walk
Un pueblo que camina

Do you think the farmers did that? Are we able to do this, together? En Conjunto strives to help you be able to be Christ's presence in the world.

If you are curious about Latinx ministry in the Southeastern Synod, please visit: elca-ses.org/en-conjunto. There you can learn more about:

- AMMPARO (Accompanying Migrant Minors with Protection, Advocacy, Representation, and Opportunity)
- Diversity and Justice
- Knowing your rights
- And much more...

Good Read:

Finding Latinx, Paola Ramos

ELCA Accompaniment Model
<https://bit.ly/3DzhZVQ>