EQUIPPING LEADERS

EMPOWERING RELATIONSHIPS

FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF
LATINX MINISTRIES IN THE SOUTHEASTERN SYNOD

En conjunto, in Spanish, means altogether, as a group, together with and is used to describe how something is done communally. En Conjunto is the name for the Southeastern Synod Latinx Ministry Initiatives because we do this work that God calls us to altogether and with one another.

RELATIONSHIPS

LATINX CONGREGATIONS

Fostering community and engagement between existing and emerging Latinx congregations as well as connecting to community resources

ALLY CONGREGATIONS

Identifying and developing possible sites for emerging Latinx ministries and partnering on ways to be welcoming, safe, and affirming places

SYNOD

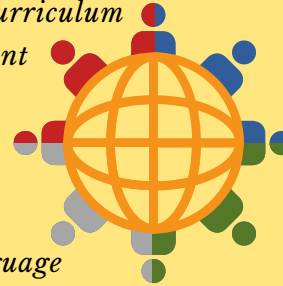

Engaging together, as a community of congregations, in shared ministry areas like diversity and justice, advocacy, disaster response, communications, youth and young adults, outdoor ministries, social services, etc

LATINX LEADERS

Equipping lay leaders for strengthened ministry in their context, developing Latinx youth leaders, congregational accompaniment, strategic planning, community resource connecting and assessment, contextual curriculum and program development

ALLY LEADERS

Intentionally working on Spanish for ministry language skills, intercultural and Latino-Latin American cultural competencies, and racial justice awareness

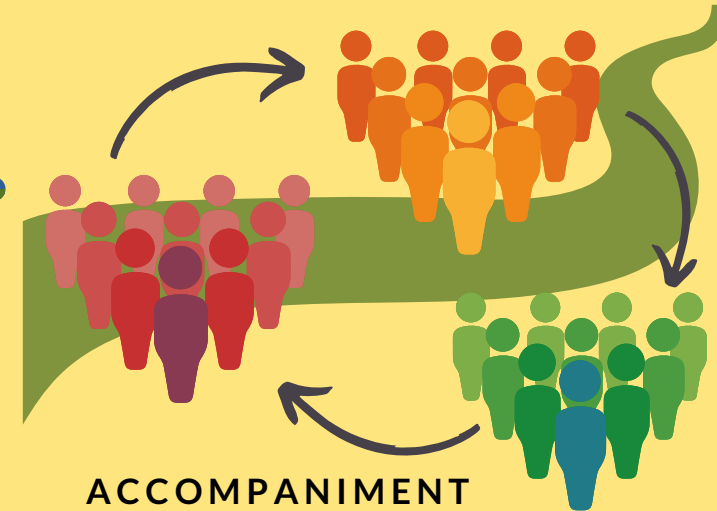

SYNOD & REGION

Facilitating conversations and providing educational opportunities and resources around Latinx experiences, cultures, identities, heritages, and perspectives as they relate to a variety of topics facing the church, society, and world

SUSTAINABLE NETWORKS

Altogether and with the help of God, we strive to empower and support authentic relationships that strengthen existing connections and build new networks that are sustainable.

ACCOMPANIMENT

Our model or way of being together in this work God has called us to is one of accompaniment, based on the values of:

- mutuality
- inclusivity
- vulnerability
- empowerment
- sustainability
